

Dear clients, colleagues, and friends,

Keystone Culture Group is pleased to provide links to three new educational pieces published recently:

1. Culture Alignment, High-Performing Healthcare Organizations, and the Role of the Governing Board:

Part 1: Culture and Culture Alignment - The Foundation of a Board's Culture Game Plan: <https://wp.me/p9556K-2Vu>

Part 2: Setting a Culture of High Performance and the Responsibility of Governing Boards: <https://wp.me/p9556K-2VO>

2. Why a "Belief System" is Essential to the Success of Culture in Organizations; An Application to Healthcare: <https://wp.me/p9556K-2W9>

In addition to these publications, our CulturePro™ video training series has been launched and is available to users now. Please visit <http://training.keystoneculturegroup.com> to examine the offerings and to sign up for access to a free preview of our CulturePro™ Series.

We have had the opportunity to bring our elite Culture Training Camp to multiple healthcare organizations recently. Each of these events have been well-received and attended. Our 2-3 hour on-site session is tailored to leaders who have committed to culture development as a principal goal for their organizations.

For more information on our Culture Training Camp and CulturePro™ online development curriculum and offerings, please visit our website at <http://www.keystoneculturegroup.com> or contact Matt Ulrich, Director of Communications, at matt@keystoneculturegroup.com.
